Homes of Beacon Hill

Beacon Hill is one of Boston's most prestigious neighborhoods, with many historic buildings and the private residences of some of the city's more renowned citizens - past and present. The homes on the Hill were designed by the country's most celebrated architects, and built for governors, senators and presidents. The morning begins with a walking tour of the Hill, which will enhance your appreciation of the history of this landmark neighborhood. Your guide will also share anecdotes about the past and present residents. Special arrangements have been made to visit three private homes, whose owners will offer their own perspective of life on the "Hill".

All Inclusive Fee: $114.00

A Culinary Tour of the North End

Explore the crooked alleys of the North End in search of robust cheeses, breads, fruity olive oils, salumerie (imports), liquor marts and cafes! The meats, savory spices and desserts are the essentials of remarkable Italian culinary art. The streets of the North End are filled with a fascinating mix of ethnic shops and food. Your guided tour will be hosted by a WONDERFUL “native” who will give the history of Boston’s Italian immigrants, and introduce you to different shops, bakeries, candy stores, imports, and cafes! You will experience the colorful sites and aromas of this fascinating neighborhood with an expert! After your walk enjoy a specialty of the North End - a cannoli and cappuccino at a charming Italian trattoria.

All Inclusive Fee: $75.00
