

World Intellectual Property Day
Austin: Born & Raised

APRIL 21, 2015, 3:00 - 7:00

LBJ Library, Brown Room

World IP Day offers a unique opportunity to join with others around the globe to reflect on the contribution of intellectual property to the flourishing of music and the arts and to driving the technological innovation that shapes our world.

Celebrate World IP Day in Austin, Texas - Music Capital of the World. Our celebration features speakers and exhibitors “Born and Raised” in Austin. Join us at the LBJ Library’s Brown Room, beginning at 3:00 as our speakers reflect on the importance of IP to their businesses. A reception will follow (5:30 – 7:00). This event is free to the public.

RSVP to rsvp@pirkeybarber.com with “World IP Day” in the subject line.

SPEAKERS 3:00 - 5:30

Brad Spies
Brand Development
SXSW

Jarrett McGehee
Director of Music Licensing
Mood Music

Lilly Turnquist
Brand Protection Manager
Kendra Scott

Katherine McCormack
Legal Counsel
Keller Williams

Bill Barber
Past President, American Intellectual Property Law Association

Reception: 5:30 – 7:00

EXHIBITORS

SPONSORS

PARTNERING ORGANIZATIONS

