

GET UP, STAND UP

World Intellectual Property Day
Detroit

April 23, 2015

Your Copy,
Your Rights:
Protecting Your Music

FOR MUSIC

3p.m. to 5p.m. - How-to Seminar

Copyrighting Your Music & Trademarking Your Band Name and Swag

Hosted by Radio Personality, Attorney Suzi Marteny.

Joe Bellanca, specializing in copyright and entertainment law at Hertz-Schram.

Michael Stewart, Partner at Rader Fishman & Grauer, education committee chair, AIPLA.

Mr. Bellanca and Mr. Stewart will also be a part of the evening panel.

5p.m. to 6p.m. - Meet & Greet

Table Displays from Law Firms, Schools, Music Companies and Businesses

Live music by singer/songwriter Alison Albrecht, winner, Michigan State Fair Super Star.

6p.m. to 8:30p.m. - Presentations

Protecting Your Music

Hosted by Satori Shakoor, Storyteller and former member of The Brides of Funkenstein.

Presentation of the award-winners from the 58th Annual Science & Engineering Fair of Metro Detroit.

Speakers followed by a Q&A Panel

Speakers Include:

Christal Sheppard, Director of the Detroit U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

Ralphe Armstrong, Bassist extraordinaire, played with George Clinton, and the London Symphony Orchestra.

Keynote by Attorney Howard Hertz, Partner at Hertz-Schram, who has represented Eminem and Atlantic Records and is President of the Detroit Music Awards Foundation.

8:30p.m. to 10p.m. - Music, Mix and Mingle

Table Displays from Law Firms, Schools, Music Companies and Businesses

Live music by Benny Reeves with the Paul Carey Band.

Hors d'oeuvres, cash bar

Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History, 315 East Warren Avenue, Detroit, MI 48201

Please RSVP at WorldIPDayDetroit@gmail.com or facebook.com/WorldIPDayDetroit

Made possible by generous donations from

