

David A. Allgeyer

Arbitrator. Over the past 17 years, David Allgeyer has served as arbitrator in over 75 commercial and intellectual property disputes. David's intellectual property-related arbitrations have resolved disputes concerning patents, trade secrets, copyrights and trademarks in the bio-manufacturing, petroleum, consumer product manufacturing, medical products, and other industries. His commercial arbitrations have resolved contract and warranty disputes in high tech, manufacturing, software, insurance and other industries. He has arbitrated matters venued in Minnesota, New York, California, Texas, Florida, Wisconsin, North Carolina, Oklahoma, and Illinois.

Mediator. David has served as mediator in cases involving intellectual property and commercial issues for over 18 years. He has mediated disputes in virtually all areas of civil law in court-annexed mediations through Minnesota State District Court and has served as a pro bono mediator for those courts.

Work history. After serving as law clerk to the United States District for the District of Minnesota, David joined the Minneapolis office of Lindquist and Vennum, where he spent 35 years litigating, arbitrating, and mediating intellectual property and commercial matters throughout the United States. In 2018, David formed Allgeyer Law & ADR, devoted to serving as an arbitrator and mediator.

Presenter and Author. David is a frequent lecturer and panelist on ADR and intellectual property matters. His ABA Book, Arbitrating Patent Cases, a Practical Guide, was published in 2017 (available at shopaba.org).

Recognition. David was named by Best Lawyers in America as the 2016 and 2020 Minneapolis Arbitration Lawyer of the Year and Minneapolis Mediation Lawyer of the Year in 2018. He is a Fellow in the College of Commercial Arbitrator and is currently included on the Silicon Valley Arbitration Mediation Center's List of the World's Leading Technology Neutrals.

Education. David is a magna cum laude graduate of the University of Minnesota Law School, where he served as an editor of the Minnesota Law Review.

More information. For more information about David and for articles on commercial and intellectual property arbitration and mediation, please visit his website, daveadr.com.