-	Mediation of patent disputes. With nearly two decades of intellectual property experience, I bring a practical and collaborative approach to mediating complex IP disputes. I was first admitted as a patent agent in 2007 and have been a licensed attorney since 2012. My entire legal career has focused on intellectual property matters, including patent, trademark, copyright, trade dress, unfair competition, licensing, and online enforcement disputes across a broad range of industries and technologies As a mediator, I use a practical and collaborative approach to help parties identify common ground, realistically evaluate risk, and explore creative, business-oriented solutions.
