AAIPLA Members and Friends:

We are really charged up about the 2019 Annual Meeting. It's a new day for AIPLA - in a new location that is still conveniently located in the metropolitan DC area, but with space that is much more accommodating to our meeting and our attendees. We're bringing the meeting "above ground" in a venue that has much greater flexibility, ease of access, and many more natural places to meet and connect with your colleagues from around the country.

Our new location, Gaylord National Harbor and Convention Center, is just a few minutes away from the US Patent & Trademark Office and Reagan National Airport, and easily accessible from Washington Dulles and Thurgood Marshall BWI airports.

We've redesigned this meeting with the attendee in mind. You'll see that our schedule has more breaks and allows more time to get from one session to the next, while still offering loads of the outstanding CLE for which AIPLA is renowned. Our exhibit displays have been moved out from the basement and into the light, in the corridors leading to the educational and networking sessions. This gives you the time you need to learn about important products and services that can help improve your practice without taking you off the beaten path.

Our Annual Meeting planning committee and AIPLA's substantive committees have designed tremendous educational sessions. As a highlight, the meeting will feature two LIVE hearings: a Patent Trial and Appeal Board hearing on Thursday, and a Trademark Trial and Appeal Board hearing on Friday. Don't miss these opportunities to see real hearings in action. Other key sessions include lessons on how to prepare a patent case for trial; strategies to help you improve your patent filings; analysis of the recent changes to the life sciences landscape, and much more.

We are very proud of this new location, and we know you will be impressed! National Harbor is a community unlike any other in the DC region, designed to take full advantage of the most historic river in the nation. Rising from the banks of the Potomac River, just south of the Woodrow Wilson Bridge with tree-lined promenades with scores of popular shops and restaurants, a casino, a marina, and The Capital Wheel - a 180-foot observation wheel featuring panoramic views of the nation's capital.

We can't wait to welcome you to our new Annual Meeting home!

Old Town Alexandria with Lunch at Gadsby's Tavern

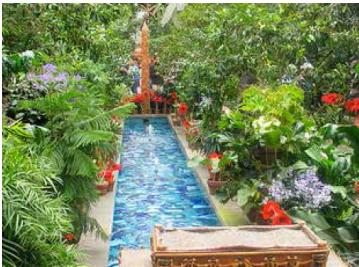

Thursday, October 24th / 11:15 AM - 4:35 PM

Cost: $110.00

Today, you will board the Potomac Water Taxi and enjoy a cruise to Old Town Alexandria! Upon arrival, you will travel on foot to Gadsby's Tavern for lunch. Gadsby's Tavern, is an original 18th century tavern in Alexandria, Virginia. A fine dining establishment, since 1770, it was in this popular tavern that George Washington celebrated his last birthday party and many of our colonel patriots gathered.

After lunch, through their licensed tour guide, you will hear of how as a young surveyor, Mr. Washington plotted the original lots for the city in 1749. Today's guide will also point out Christ Church, where Mr. Washington served as vestryman. You will then walk by Market Square, where Washington commanded his troops, and the Apothecary Shop, often frequented by Washington. The once bustling seaport of Alexandria was Mr. Washington's lifeline to news from the other colonies and from Europe. Guests will also have time to visit the quaint shops abundant in Old Town, Alexandria.

You will travel forward through the centuries to The Torpedo Factory. A renovated World War I torpedo plant on the docks of the Potomac, the Torpedo Factory Art Center is the highlight of Alexandria's Potomac River waterfront, attracting approximately 700,000 visitors annually. You will have the opportunity to visit artists' studios, cooperative galleries, workshops, as well as the Alexandria Archaeology Museum. The Center houses more than 165 visual artists who produce artwork in a wide variety of media including painting, ceramics, photography, jewelry, stained glass, fiber, printmaking, and sculpture - a wonderful place to end the day before returning to the National Harbor on the water taxi!

The US Botanic Gardens & National Arboretum

Friday, October 25th / 9:30 AM - 1:30 PM

Cost: $75.00

The United States Botanic Garden is a must see while visiting Washington, DC. The USBG is the oldest continually operating botanic garden in the United States. Supervised by Congress through the Architect of the Capitol, the garden houses a variety of beautiful and fascinating living plants right at the foot of the U.S. Capitol. Today, you will enjoy a guided tour of the grounds and the conservatory.

You will then have the opportunity to enjoy a riding tour of the United States National Arboretum which encompasses 446 acres of gardens, collections and natural areas. Stops will include the National Bonsai & Penjing Museum, and the National Herb Garden which are not clearly visible from the road. A day spent exploring the U.S. Botanic Gardens and National Arboretum will inspire you to see the beauty in nature.
