AIPLA Members and Friends:

The world around us is changing rapidly, and IP law and practice is keeping pace. Join us in Tampa for the 2019 Mid-Winter Institute where we will be addressing these emerging issues in the practice of IP law. Our Institute will not only provide exceptional speakers on substantive, timely issues facing our profession, but will also deliver practical insights to guide professional development for seasoned practitioners as well as newly minted agents and attorneys. It will also include plenty of events and opportunities to network with fellow IP practitioners.

Our Institute kicks off with a focus on diversity and inclusion, as we hear from members of the bench and in-house counsel on cutting-edge practices and initiatives. Our panelists include the Honorable Judge Adalberto Jordan from US Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, the Honorable Judge Cathy Bissoon from the Western District of Pennsylvania, and the Honorable Judge Sue L. Robinson (retired) from the District of Delaware. Our distinguished panel of in-house counsel will be moderated by Sarah Harris, General Counsel of US Patent and Trademark Office.

We are also pleased to host Professor Bruce Bueno de Mesquita, a renowned political scientist and behavioral economist, who will lead our Friday plenary session on the essential principles of persuasion. This will be followed by sessions on persuasion in the courtroom, in examiner interviews, and in settlement negotiation. As another highlight on Friday, the Honorable Judge Jose L. Linares, Chief Judge of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, will be our luncheon speaker.

Our programming will also leave you with insights into developing winning in-house/outside counsel relationships—from responding to a request for proposal to effectively managing work among in-house legal operations, outside counsel and vendors. At the cutting edge of technology and law, leaders from the trilateral Patent Offices will speak to both the practical and substantive issues around patents and the era of artificial intelligence. Also, hear Commissioner Mary Denison address the problem of fraudulent trademark filings, and how the US Patent and Trademark Office is responding.

No matter the level of experience or years of practice, our program will have topics of interest to everyone. We hope you can join us, and bring someone new. AIPLA continues to offer special group pricing, incentives for corporate members, attendance packages, and the like. Please contact Michelle Stuckey (massistant@aipla.org) at AIPLA headquarters to receive more information on these opportunities.

Join us in Tampa to meet fellow practitioners as well as re-connect with colleagues and friends while we all prepare for the current challenges facing our profession. We hope to see you there!

Working Together: How Outside Counsel and In-House Legal Operations Work Together To Modernize Today's IP Practice

Outside counsel, more than ever, is expected to partner with the in-house legal organization to bring value and impact in a cost conscious, long view approach. A Taste of Tampa Bay

Thursday January 31 | 9:30 AM – 2:30 PM | Cost: $98.00

Today you will experience two sides of the Bay. Nestled along the banks along of Old Tampa Bay lies the City of Safety Harbor, a secret little hideaway, neighbored by the major cities of Clearwater and Tampa; this quaint community of 17,000 people boasts a famous resort, distinctive shops, award winning restaurants & pubs and art in abundance.

Once considered a “blessed” location for the Tocobagan Indians and later a “safe haven” during a storm to the Spanish this community typically surprises its visitors by what a “happening” kind of place it is.

This morning you will travel to this haven and experience some “Whimzey” in your life.

Enjoy a tour of the world-renowned “Whimzeyland” house. Known for its bowling ball garden, unique sculptures and colorful mosaic walkways outside and its variety of whimsical décor inside. Whimzeyland has been featured on MTV cribs as well as appearances on HGTV’s Extreme Homes.

Then we travel eastward and across the Bay and travel back in time old Tampa with a stop at the former Tampa Bay Hotel, now the University of Tampa. Explore the public spaces; the 1890’s to be exact. Then it’s a quick jaunt through downtown and into Ybor, pronounced E-bor Ybor was once the “Cigar Capital of the World”, hear about this former hub and Latin community with its cigar history and mix of immigrants which gave Tampa its wonderful “flavor”. Notice many of the former cigar factories and Social Clubs of a former era. Lunch today at the famous Columbia Restaurant in Ybor.

Experience Tarpon Springs

Friday February 1 | 9:30 AM – 2:30 PM | Cost: $93.00

It’s not the Greek Isles but it’s as Close as we can Get!

Depart your hotel this morning and travel via some of Florida’s backroads to Tarpon Springs, Florida’s small Greek community sitting on the Gulf of Mexico. Your guide will point out to you many of the more well buildings and housing while telling you about local stories which make this community what it is. Tarpon Springs is a small historic community with an unusual mix of Greek culture, Victorian and Floridan architecture. Incorporated in 1887 this community is located on the Gulf of Mexico on the west coast of Florida and was named after the tarpon springing from its bayou. Early in its history the community drew spongers from Key West and Greece and it also drew many of the rich and famous during Florida’s land boom days, some of whom built on the ring of gold on the city’s main bayou. Today you will see some of the old Victorian Houses in addition to some of Tarpon’s landmarks. Hear about the famous weeping icon in the St Nicolas Cathedral then arrive at the sponge docks, the heart of Tarpon.

On your arrival enjoy a short boat ride on the Anclote River which runs into the Gulf, then stroll the main street with its many sponge shops en route to your lunch location. Lunch will be provided at a local restaurant near the historic sponge docks.

Corporate In-House Counsel — Attending Your First AIPLA Meeting? Please, be Our Guest...

AIPLA has a special offer to encourage in-house corporate counsel to attend an AIPLA major meeting to see first-hand the outstanding CLE programs we provide.

For individuals who have never attended an AIPLA stated meeting, such as an Annual, Mid-Winter or Spring Meeting, who are also corporate in-house counsel, AIPLA will waive the registration fee. Tickets to the events are not included in this registration. You will need to pay for those events separately. This waiver of fees is available for one stated meeting only.

To take advantage of this one-time offer, simply complete the registration form and fax it to us at 703-415-0786. Once AIPLA has verified that this is your first major meeting and that you meet the in-house corporate counsel criteria, you will receive a registration confirmation. Our hope is that you enjoy your experience at your first AIPLA meeting and that you will join us again for future programs and become more actively involved with the work of the Association, especially through involvement with the Committees.

If you qualify for this special offer, please select the box listed as “first-time corporate in-house counsel” on the registration form.
