20|20 Vision

How Will the IP System Adapt to a Changing World?

January 29 – February 1, 2020

Sheraton Grand at Wild Horse Pass
Phoenix, AZ
AIPLA Members and Friends:

The next decade will bring waves of emerging technology stretching the bounds and constructs of our IP system. Hindsight is said to be 20/20 vision, but at the 2020 Mid-Winter Institute we will take a look ahead focusing on what is to come. What are the challenges we will face and how will the IP system adapt? Technology will not only challenge the IP system but will also enhance it with tools such as big data, AI, block chain and others that will transform our practice. Come to hear views of the challenges and a look ahead from the perspectives of the bench, from industry and IP stakeholders.

Join us in Phoenix where the 2020 Mid-Winter Institute will be addressing these emerging issues in the practice of IP law. Our Institute will not only provide exceptional speakers on substantive, timely issues facing our profession, but will also deliver practical insights to guide professional development for seasoned practitioners as well as newly minted agents and attorneys. It will also include plenty of events and opportunities to network with fellow IP practitioners.

Our Institute kicks off with a view from the bench, as we hear from members of the on cutting-edge practices and initiatives. A view from industry leaders on IP issues in the emerging tech world will feature panelists from the medicine, medical device, beauty, cosmetics, driverless vehicle and aerospace industries. New tools for the practice will be explored by a panel featuring speakers from the USPTO, EPO and industry. You will have an opportunity to discuss these and other issues in our round table talks led by members of our Corporate Practice and Law Practice Management Committees.

We are also pleased to host keynote industry luncheon speakers Naomi Voegtli, Honeywell – Aerospace and Nona Lee, Executive Vice President & Chief Legal Officer, Arizona Diamondbacks.

No matter the level of experience or years of practice, our program will have topics of interest to everyone. We hope you can join us, and bring someone new. AIPLA continues to offer special group pricing, incentives for corporate members, attendance packages, and the like. Please contact Michelle Stuckey (massistant@aipla.org) at AIPLA headquarters to receive more information on these opportunities.

Join us in Phoenix to meet fellow practitioners as well as re-connect with colleagues and friends while we all prepare for the current challenges facing our profession. We hope to see you there!

Ticket Required
1. CAMELBACK MOUNTAIN
Nearly every outdoors-loving Phoenix local has, at some time or another, started his or her day with a hike to the top of Camelback Mountain. The city’s most famous landmark resembles a dromedary camel in repose, and the mountain challenges hikers with a rugged but rewarding trek to its 2,700-foot "hump."

2. MUSICAL INSTRUMENT MUSEUM
This museum is the first in the world dedicated to the celebration of global instruments. The collection includes instruments from more than 200 countries and territories. Musicians of all ages will dig the Experience Gallery, where you can touch and play every instrument on display.

3. DESERT BOTANICAL GARDEN
This outdoor museum showcases desert plants – and not just those native to the Southwest. Among the succulents that adorn the garden’s 55 cultivated acres are Dali-esque trees from North Africa and sprawling cactuses from Mesopotamia. Insider’s tip: Sign up for a docent-guided tour.

4. HEARD MUSEUM
The traditional and contemporary art on display at the Heard provides insight into the culture of Arizona’s 22 Native American tribes. Not to be missed is the upstairs exhibit on Indian boarding schools. And the Heard Museum Shop is one of best places in Phoenix to buy authentic American Indian art and jewelry.

5. CHILDREN’S MUSEUM OF PHOENIX
This museum doesn’t focus on art or science, nor does it contain paintings or bones; instead, the hands-on exhibits are designed simply to entertain children as young as infants and as old as 10. (Don’t miss the hanging forest of pool noodles.)

6. SOUTH MOUNTAIN PARK AND PRESERVE
This is one of the largest municipal parks in the U.S. It covers 16,000 acres, making it nearly 20 times larger than Central Park in New York. But you won’t find manicured grass and fountains here; the park is instead filled with native flora, ancient petroglyphs and 50-plus miles of trails. There’s also a kid-friendly nature center and a paved road to the summit.

7. PHOENIX ART MUSEUM
Phoenix Art Museum is the largest fine-art museum in the Southwest. Its permanent collection includes American, Asian and European masterpieces. The museum is noted for its Western American collection, but striking work is also to be found in the contemporary wing and fashion-design gallery.

8. HERITAGE SQUARE
Occupying a city block in downtown Phoenix, Heritage Square is a link to the city’s 19th-century origins. Heritage Square is home to preserved Victorian-style homes, as well as the dramatically modern Arizona Science Center. Go for the critically acclaimed food at Pizzeria Bianco and Nobuo at Teeter House, stay for the history.

9. OLD TOWN SCOTTSDALE
The Old West and New West converge in Old Town Scottsdale, where galleries dedicated to American Indian and cowboy arts share a pedestrian-friendly streetscape with shops that sell Southwestern jewelry and crafts. You’ll also find some of Greater Phoenix’s finest restaurants and trendiest nightlife.

10. TALIESIN WEST
Subtly rising out of the desert floor at the foot of the McDowell Mountains, Taliesin West was the winter home of Frank Lloyd Wright, America’s most-famous architect. Tours range from 1 hour to 3 hours, including a 2-hour Night Lights Tour on select evenings throughout the year.

Group Discounts

AIPLA is pleased to announce the introduction of a new, special registration option for law firms and corporations. In an effort to create opportunities for multiple IP practitioners from a single organization to attend the meeting, AIPLA is offering one complimentary registration for the 2020 Mid-Winter Institute for every three [3], fully-paid registrations.

Register 3-Get 1 FREE

Your complimentary registration may be used for a colleague, client, or other as you determine is most valuable.

A paper registration must be downloaded from the website and submitted for the complimentary registration by email to meetings@aipla.org. Please note in the email the names of the three paid registrants for confirmation.

Only fully paid registrations can be applied toward the multi-registration offer. The following exclusions apply:

- This offer is not valid for meeting exhibitors.
- Guest registrations do not apply toward the total number of paid registrations.
- First-time corporate attendees and Corporate Subscription registrations do not apply toward the total number of paid registrations.

Corporate In-House Counsel — Attending Your First AIPLA Meeting? Please, be Our Guest...

AIPLA has a special offer to encourage in-house corporate counsel to attend an AIPLA major meeting to see first-hand the outstanding CLE programs we provide.

For individuals who have never attended an AIPLA stated meeting, such as an Annual, Mid-Winter or Spring Meeting, who are also corporate in-house counsel, AIPLA will waive the registration fee. Tickets to the events are not included in this registration. You will need to pay for those events separately. This waiver of fees is available for one stated meeting only.

To take advantage of this one-time offer, simply complete the registration form and fax it to us at 703-415-0786. Once AIPLA has verified that this is your first major meeting and that you meet the in-house corporate counsel criteria, you will receive a registration confirmation. Our hope is that you enjoy your experience at your first AIPLA meeting and that you will join us again for future programs and become more actively involved with the work of the Association, especially through involvement with the Committees.

If you qualify for this special offer, please select the box listed as “first-time corporate in-house counsel” on the registration form.

Payment for meeting registration must be in US currency.

3. Spouses or Accompanying Guests Must Register.
Guests over 18 pay a guest fee of $150. There are many opportunities for your spouse or guest to join you throughout the meeting, as well as network with and get to know the other spouses and guests attending the meeting. The Guest fees include a guest badge and access to all unticketed events, including: the continental breakfasts, luncheon receptions, morning and afternoon breaks, special spouse/guest welcome reception and access to a special hospitality suite open during the posted meeting registration hours and stocked with beverages and snacks. This fee is intended for spouses and guests attending the Mid-Winter Institute who are not eligible for AIPLA membership or who would not otherwise attend the meeting for CLE purposes. This guest fee is not available in lieu of paying the registration fee for vendors requesting more than the allotted number of exhibitor badges.

4. Purchasing Event Tickets On-Site:
Events may sell out. Tickets on-site are sold on an “as available” basis. Tickets will be collected at all food functions and the spouse/guest tours.
If you do not arrive at the event within the first 30 minutes of the start time of the event, you are not guaranteed a seat.

5. Returned Check and Credit Card Fees:
Registrations received that result in a returned check or contain incomplete credit card information, including omitted signature, omitted expiration date, wrong number sequences, etc., will be charged a $35 fee for each instance.
