AIPLA Members and Friends:

We are so happy to welcome you all to our 2022 Annual Meeting! Not only are we thrilled to be back in person, but we are also especially excited to be together celebrating 125 years of AIPLA! It is because of your continued support and engagement that we are here marking this monumental occasion. AIPLA has been providing innovative CLE and unmatched guidance and advocacy to the IP community for over a century, and we look forward to continuing for many years to come!

We are happy to be back at the beautiful National Harbor Resort, just minutes from Washington, D.C. This venue provides plenty of space and has procedures in place to ensure your safety and comfort as we gather together. #aiplaAM22 will not only offer excellent CLE opportunities, but we also look forward to networking and social gatherings highlighting AIPLA over the years, as well as showcasing the work of our 60+ committees. These events serve to connect members of the IP community, bringing together longtime and new friends of AIPLA. You will be able to easily navigate the meeting and learn about our exhibitors using the Meeting App and event desktop platform.

AIPLA has been keeping busy advancing our goals of being an unparalleled resource to the IP community. We have new initiatives, ranging from mentoring and volunteer opportunities, to our Law School Link program aimed at welcoming increased participation from law students in the AIPLA community, as well as expanding our DE&I efforts. Among our many goals this year has been furthering opportunities in the Diversity and Inclusion space. We are committed to reducing and eliminating barriers facing under-represented groups and will continue to promote diversity within the organization and field. In support of these initiatives, we have a session on Thursday focused on the Elimination of Bias, especially in IP Litigation. Other AIPLA programs hosted by our Diversity Committee throughout the year, and our Corporate Practice Committee during their Corporate Practice Institute in August will feature a session on eliminating bias in the corporate world. AIPLA will continue to strive to be a leader in this space.

The IP community welcomed new USPTO Director Kathi Vidal earlier this year. AIPLA has already met with Director Vidal, sharing our goals and vision for the future of IP and we are honored to have the director join us as the keynote speaker for our Opening Plenary on Thursday.

We also have several networking events built into the live event schedule and we encourage all attendees to take advantage of the many opportunities. The Meeting App and event desktop platform will be your vehicle to take advantage of all the event has to offer. You can visit the exhibits virtually as well, and even schedule time to connect with exhibitors, learn about the speakers, and connect with all Annual Meeting attendees. Join us in celebrating 125 years of AIPLA at the can’t-miss IP event of the year!

Get Involved! Sign up to be a Mentor, a Mentee or Both!

Mentoring Programs
The Mentoring Committee launched its new Mentoring Season Program. The enrollment for each Mentoring Season Program will be open for two weeks following each stated meeting. During this period, AIPLA members have the opportunity to submit an application to be placed in a traditional 1:1 mentor and mentee pairing or a mentoring cluster (a cluster is a group of about 4-6 practitioners).

To support our Committee’s mission to foster more long-standing, organic relationships, we will hold a virtual pairing event after the enrollment period, which will give applicants the opportunity to interact with potential mentors/mentees before forming a pairing or cluster and submit preferences based on real connections made during the event. Subsequently, the committee’s Relationship Manager and Matchmaker will pair the applicants based on their submitted preferences.

Stay tuned for our next enrollment period immediately following the Annual Meeting!
The Mentoring Committee facilitates traditional one on one mentor/mentee pairings and offers support to these pairings through our Relationship Manager and Matchmaker.

Mentoring Clusters
The Mentoring Committee facilitates a cluster program where groups of AIPLA members are joined together based on experience levels, for example, a cluster may include a seasoned level, a mid-level and 1-2 junior level/law student. Clusters can be grouped according to preferences submitted by each applicant.

On-site Stated Meeting Pairings
The Mentoring Committee facilitates the mentoring of AIPLA members at on-site stated meetings via one on one pairings. The pairings are for the duration of the stated meeting with the opportunity to continue the relationship.

Law Students Community
The Mentoring Committee created a law students community, run by law students, to provide focused offerings to our law student members.

New Lawyers Community
The Mentoring Committee is in the process of creating a new lawyers community, run by new lawyers, to provide focused offerings to our new lawyer members.

Join the Mentoring Committee/Get Involved
Please contact Chair, Randi Karpinia at randi@sagacitylegal.com or Vice Chair, Jessica Ergmann at jessicaergmann@gmail.com if you’d like to join the committee, get involved or have any questions.

You can sign up on the registration form to be paired with a Mentor or Mentee for this meeting.

Perspectives on Diversity: Views on Trial Teams from the Bench, the Boardroom, and the Jury Box
Diversity is talked about and lauded in a variety of organizational contexts, including the legal profession. The value proposition is clear: diverse teams lead to a diversity of viewpoints, which in turn leads to better outcomes. But what strides have actually been made at improving diversity in the trial setting? And are there any unique considerations that counsel and clients should take into account in composing a diverse trial team? Building on their years of experience in the courtroom and on the results of AIPLA’s Trial Diversity Survey, our panelists will discuss their perspectives on trial diversity, including what law firms and in-house departments can do to continue moving the needle forward.

A retrospective on the impact of AIPLA over the years...walk through AIPLA’s history in our gallery

February 24, 1907 - The Washington Post

"Probably no other organization in the city of Washington has a wider range, either in the matter of members or in far reaching effect of its work..."

February 11, 1897 - "A New Patent Association is Formed" - The Washington Post

Though not called AIPLA at its founding, the organization we know now was first formed to "...give instruction, in the form of lectures, on patent law and practice to persons interested in those subjects..."

September 30, 1914 - The Washington Post

Ellis Spear, AIPLA’s first president, 1897-98. Also served as Commissioner of Patents, 1877-78.

Bernar Pravel, APLA and then AIPLA President, 1983-84.

1991 - I. Fred Koenigsburg is the first Copyright Attorney to serve as AIPLA President.

1998 - Margaret “Meg” Boulware is the first woman to serve as AIPLA President.

1991 - I. Fred Koenigsburg is the first Copyright Attorney to serve as AIPLA President.

2005 - Melvin C. Garner is elected as the first Black President of AIPLA.

Judy Saffer, who is both a former professional dancer, and a Copyright Attorney, served as AIPLA President from 2006-2007, demonstrating the intersection between IP and the Arts.

Present day - 2022 - AIPLA is a vibrant, diverse community, dedicated to educating IP professionals, to be the best IP practitioners they can be. AIPLA's core purpose is to support IP professionals, foster innovation and creativity, and promote an effective and balanced intellectual property system. And we do it with all of you!

Corporate In-House Counsel — Attending Your First AIPLA Meeting? Please, Be Our Guest...

AIPLA has a special offer to encourage in-house corporate counsel to attend an AIPLA major meeting to see first-hand the outstanding CLE programs we provide. For individuals who have never attended an AIPLA stated meeting, such as Mid-Winter, Spring, or Annual Meeting, who are also corporate in-house counsel, AIPLA will waive the registration fee. Tickets to the events are not included in this registration. You will need to pay for those events separately. This waiver of fees is available for one stated meeting only.

To take advantage of this one-time offer, simply complete the registration form and email it to meetings@aipla.org. Once AIPLA has verified that this is your first major meeting and that you meet the in-house corporate counsel criteria, you will receive a registration confirmation. Our hope is that you enjoy your experience at your first AIPLA meeting and that you will join us again for future programs and become more actively involved with the work of the Association, especially through involvement with the Committees.

2022 AIPPI World Congress in San Francisco

Why Join the AIPPI-US Division of AIPLA?
AIPPI brings together leaders from many national groups on a level playing field, providing unique opportunities to learn about IP law in other countries. One of the important benefits of membership in the AIPPI-US Division of AIPLA is the chance to meet and get to know top US and international IP lawyers and learn about US intellectual property law in an international context.

AIPPI at Work
AIPPI is the international association for the protection of intellectual property. AIPPI Resolutions can and do provide support for international and national lawmakers, advocates and decision-makers engaged in the work of advancing the development of IP treaties and laws and in applying such authority to determine the rights of parties. WIPO and the “IP5,” as well as other regional and national patent or intellectual property offices, legislatures and courts, are among the important organizations and institutions to consider such input from AIPPI. Becoming a member of AIPPI-US is YOUR opportunity to help guide the development of international IP laws.

Join AIPPI-US
AIPLA has a rich history of engagement with the international IP community. A great way for AIPLA members to get involved in international IP is through AIPPI-US, which is a Division of AIPLA. AIPPI-US is the U.S. group for AIPPI-Intl, which is the international organization of business firms, executives, lawyers, educators, patent and trademark agents, and people like YOU! Adding an AIPPI-US membership to your AIPLA membership can be done by signing up on your “Member Center” tab on the AIPLA website.
