“AIPLA on the Road: The Latest on Patent Practice Before the USPTO and the PTAB (including Ethics)”

Join AIPLA to get the most up-to-date information on (1) U.S. Patent Office Practice, including implementation of and updates to the USPTO’s Section 101 Guidelines, tips for drafting successful quality patent applications, search initiatives and AI tools,(2) Trial Practice Before the PTAB, including interactive sessions with administrative patent judges and expert practitioners; and (3) an ethics session on professional responsibility and practice before the USPTO. This program will feature sessions covering patent drafting strategies in line with the USPTO’s quality initiatives, an update on Section 101 guidelines and how they impact our practice, an overview and update on trial practice before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board, effective advocacy before the PTAB, and an interview with the Chief Judge of the PTAB. Whether you are a patent prosecutor or patent litigator, this program will include useful tricks of the trade to help you in your practice before the USPTO.
