Patent Prosecution Boot Camp Pre-Meeting

May 13-15, 2019 Loews Philadelphia Hotel, Philadelphia, PA

Are you interested in staying current on patent prosecution practice or involved in cross-disciplinary practice? Are you a new or junior lawyer, a patent agent, or a technical advisor? Are you a foreign practitioner who wants to understand and speak the language of the USPTO and US practitioners when sending instructions on a US case or when receiving instructions on a local case?

If your answer is "yes" to any of the above questions, or if you simply love patent law, please join us at the Loews Philadelphia for this 2.5-day patent prosecution seminar, which is being held immediately before AIPLA's Spring Meeting.

Now in its 20th year, AIPLA's Patent Prosecution Boot Camp is a comprehensive, CLE-accredited seminar that includes instructional lecture-style sessions with practical tips on U.S. and international patent preparation and prosecution, as well as hands-on interactive workshops that will walk you through drafting claims and responding to office actions. To ensure that the workshops are relevant to your practice, they are held in smaller groups according to technology backgrounds: (1) Biotechnology/ Chemical, (2) Electrical/Software, and (3) Mechanical.

Day 1 focuses on preparation of a patent application.

Day 2 focuses on prosecution of the application to grant.

Day 3 is a half-day program dedicated to more advanced topics such as petitions, appeals, post-grant proceedings, and international practice.

Stay around after the Patent Prosecution Boot Camp and attend the Spring Meeting taking place at the same hotel. If you attend the Boot Camp and then register for the 2019 Spring Meeting, you will get $200 off your Spring Meeting registration fee. Check your Patent Prosecution Boot Camp registration confirmation email for details.

Philadelphia's Public Art: Murals, Fountains, Sculpture and Gardens

Wednesday May 15 - 9:30 AM - 12:30 PM

Cost: $95.00

Learn why Philadelphia has been called "the mural capital of the world" as well as the "1% for art" program that helps adorn Philadelphia with public art – from fountains, murals, mobiles, gardens, sculpture and light.

Get close up look at how the public landscape has been beautified for both the citizens and visitors alike over the years on this interactive on- and off-coach tour experience.

Included in this unique tour is an interior visit to Philadelphia artist Isaiah Zagar's Philadelphia's Magic Gardens where you'll see how he uses ceramic tile, mirrors and found objects to create colorful and unusual mosaic murals, a visit to the Comcast Experience for this 'larger than life' hi-definition television experience and the Tiffany studio's The Dream Garden.

It's a once-in-a-Philadelphia-visit opportunity to get up close and personal with the city's public art, gardens and spectacular fountains.

Revolutionary Women: Well-Behaved Women Rarely Made History

Thursday May 16 - 9:00 AM - 1:00 PM

Cost: $99.00

It's impossible to visit Philadelphia and not learn of the extraordinary accomplishments of Washington, Franklin, Jefferson and Adams. In addition to the men of the Declaration of Independence and the United States Constitution, get to know the stories behind the "founding mothers" as you explore the lives of such notable women as Betsy Ross, Dolley Madison, Martha Washington and Abigail Adams among lesser-known Elizabeth Powel, Peggy Shippen and Cloris Inglesby.

Visit the Betsy Ross House, Second Bank of the United States (to see a rare portrait of Martha Washington) and homes of Dolley Todd Madison and Eliza Powel, the later credited with convincing George Washington to run for a second term.

Continue the exploration of the 'road to the revolution' at the NEW Museum of the American Revolution and learn the inspiring stories of how women, children, Native American's and the 'average citizen' helped with the war for Independence.
